The 🦅 Falconer
Organization Chart

Editor-in-Chief
Edits all articles, manages all editorial decisions, newspaper design, editors, and club personnel.

Advisor
Responsible for all students enrolled in a class, and is the liaison between FCPS and The Falconer.

Executive Editor
Leadership but non-editorial role. Advised on decisions but ultimately considered outside of the chain of command.

Managing Editor
Edits all articles and designs all newspaper pages. Highest-ranking member after editor-in-chief.

Not Included:
Individuals such as any FCPS staff member other than the advisor (principal, superintendent, etc) are not a part of the chain of command and have no authority whatsoever. See The Falconer Guidebook for more information about conflicts with FCPS.

Seniority List:
1. Editor-in-Chief
2. Managing Editor
3. Executive Editor
4. Section Editors
5. Staff

(When multiple individuals occupy the same title, the one who has the most experience is senior).

Section Editors
Responsible for editing articles in their assigned section and designing their section's newspaper pages.

Editorial Board
All members to the left of the red line make up the editorial board.

Staff
(To editors for all editorial, promotion decisions, and club students. To advisor for all students enrolled in a course).
